

It's Time for Putin to Fire 10-20-24 @ 5:43 PM

The drums of war beat faster and faster daughter. The sound of war has been heard throughout the land. Putin fires again at the Ukrainian people but this time he uses the devices, the weapons sustained by the nuclear power. It is time, daughter. Not a drill or a war commencement of games, of strategies.

He has grown wary of playing cat and mouse with Zelensky of Ukraine when they both know he has been called to win this war by those powers in control of your world's operations... the fallen angels, the upper elite of the council of 13, hidden secret society, and their front, the illuminati.

He is preparing to fire daughter. His aim will be true and then all those defending him...Putin the bear swayed by his charm and seducing spirit shall know. Yes, he will push the button that sets off the nuclear powered weapon device that shall send shock waves throughout your world.

In horror, your world will realize that Vladimir Putin is on a mission. He adheres to his instructions with precise efficiency. Zelensky on the other hand has become more so of a loose cannon as your world calls it. He no longer wants to succumb to Putin's hands in war. Their hatred for each other is real and pure but their loyalties to the hidden secret society and the fallen ones is greater.

I have allowed Zelensky to become drunk on the power of blackmail. He has realized how profitable it really is. Through this open avenue into his wicked heart rebellion has grown. He has now chosen for himself the glory of being the victor in this war between Ukraine and Russia. And he is trying to sway his nephilim allies to this way of thinking in hopes of their ability to have the council of 13 and the fallen angels themselves reconsider the outcome of this war.

He has been deceived by the very demons and fallen ones he worships and deals with. For Gog must rise in many ways for the Scripture of Truth to be fulfilled as I have had it written by the Holy Ghost through men who loved My Father and Me.

Daughter the war drums have begun beating at a more rapid pace. This is what you were hearing in the realm of the spirit.

Decisions have been made. Choices have been pushed by demonic influences. Nothing or no one is as it seems. Daughter...daughter the time is now. It's here. for these things are now fully active upon your world now. The commands have been given for these things to no longer be discussed but to fully commence. All orders have been received.

What your world is seeing is a facade! A play on a great scale.

If you are not My child, then you will be deceived.

If you are a disobedient child of Mine, then you will be deceived.

If you are newly Mine and learning how to discern My voice above others, as your Shepherd I shall help you through My Holy Word and others to not become deceived. But you must go deep into My Word. This is your greatest resource and strength because I am the Word made into flesh and I am Truth.

Those who have learned well how to try, test, and discern the spirits and other voices, pay attention! The enemy has some new tricks and devices so do not get slack. Continue to prove and discern everything by prayer in My Name, by the fruits that are evident, by My Holy Spirit, and by My Holy Word. Because if you do not, then you will most likely be deceived.

Because the whole world lies in deception except for My Truth found in My Word and is about to be removed. For some who will find themselves left behind for the tribulation, finding the true Word of God will become a dangerous task.

Vladimir Putin and Russia the bear have been key players in this world scene. He has an end-time role to fulfill. This is why he shall prevail. Can You feel the urgency of the lateness of the hour daughter? Yes, you can because I have let you feel it physically and spiritually.

"Daughter warn My people it's time for Putin to fire against Ukraine." "I will Jesus Christ. How long?" "Sooner than most realized daughter. And when he fires this nuclear power weapon it will be like a rolling boulder that picks up speed heading down a very steep mountain. When it stops the world will be in nuclear chaos. Do not forget hidden in Ukraine is great evil and sins too."
