

Atlantis Will Rise Dream 10-16-24 to 10-25-24

I'm rewriting the dream about Atlantis that I first dreamed about this time on 10-16-24. This dream I dreamed until 10-25-24. I'm pulling all the entries into one journal entry. Please Sweet Holy Spirit don't let me write a word or speak one that's not from Father God or Jesus Christ concerning this dream. This is a 2 Corinthians 13:1 dream which tells us in the mouth of two or more witnesses shall every word be established.

I found myself standing in front of three very huge and very tall light colored pyramids. One stands in front of the other two even though it's between the others. On the very top of each is a large diamond shaped gemstone. The one in the front middle has a clear diamond. I recognize it as a diamond of power created by the fallen ones and nephilim. It is connected to the top of the pyramid by what I can only call an end cap of metal that's on top of the pyramid. This whole thing connects the diamond shaped gemstone of power to each pyramid. Each pyramid has a different colored diamond with each a different type of metal for the end cap of each. I understood a different color stone, diamond to conduct power of its type required a different type of metal to conduct it.

The pyramids all appear to be the same height with the one on the left having a red garnet diamond to power and the one on the right has a blue sapphire. The metal around each I just knew where as followed. The clear diamond was silver. The red garnet was gold. The blue sapphire was copper. When I looked intently at the tall one with the red garnet shaped diamond I saw the words written in black inside a white bubble, "Treasure room." "What?" I asked in surprise. The words fell off the white bubble and disappeared only to be replaced by these. "The black cube of time and advancement." "Oh!" I exclaimed and then declared, "I'm in the lost city of Atlantis again. Always before I have only been inside the buildings or hovering above its hidden location that can never be found until Father God declares its time." The height of these pyramids reminds me of those on and under Antarctica's Island hidden under the ice and also the ground beneath. "Why am I seeing the outside now after all this time?" I asked in a whisper.

I know from past experiences that these pyramids belong to the fallen angels and the nephilim. I heard this reply upon the gentle breeze blowing. "It's needful for you to recognize it for she shall rise again after her lot of time has passed. Atlantis is gone by many names from start to end when it existed throughout history and this is purposefully done so no one could locate its existence until I allow it to reappear. Daughter, it is time. This is a city of the fallen ones and nephilim kings." I looked around at the vast city with supernatural eyesight that allowed my eyes to take in the whole mammoth Island. It is an island because I can see water on all four of its sides. "Jesus Christ has it been written about in Your Holy Word?" I asked as I looked in awe around the gigantic sprawling city that's soon to be allowed to return to our world. "It has, daughter of Mine but I have allowed Atlantis' name at that time to be interchange with another location. This again has been done to keep this lost city of Atlantis lost to the world of man and fallen angels." "Antichrist is searching for Atlantis already. He wants a black cube of time and advancement," I said quickly. "Yes," I heard the voice reply from the Heavens, "but he will not find it until I call it forth by Father's command at that appointed time," Jesus Christ my love finished saying. "Which is when?" I asked.

"When the earth rumbles and shakes, mountains and Islands move out of their place. Some fall while some rise and the earth's land formation as your world now knows it is changed forever different than before," He replied softly from the Heavens. I let out a small gasp as I replied softly. "You're talking about the great earthquake written about in Revelation 6:12-14 aren't you Jesus Christ my love?" "Yes I am, daughter of Mine," came the reply. "Why are you showing me it in full detail now, Jesus Christ?" "Daughter it is because when Atlantis rises again so will it be time of the fallen ones to make their appearance known to your world as friendly aliens who have been in hiding, secretly watching and aiding mankind. When Atlantis is released by Father's command to come forth out of the depths of the waters' deep, the fallen ones will reclaim it. They will power up the diamond, garnet, and sapphire of power and through sound vibrations, pulses, frequencies, and notes combined their city will be restored to a livable form once again removing all that had been in closing and covering it all this time. The pyramids do many things besides powering the city. Take notice daughter of all you see because Atlantis is not the only buried nephilim or fallen angel location to resurface from water and land. Most will have much of the same setup." Jesus Christ said to me in a warning voice of authority.

"What do you mean?" I ask quickly. "What do you see to the left of the left pyramid?" He asked me. It looks like rows, many rows of long buildings surrounded by some type of poles that's spaced apart. "Honestly Jesus Christ it looks like one of our government's federal camps for emergencies the way it's laid out." I heard Jesus Christ reply to me, "Where do you think your government got their blueprints and examples from daughter? The fallen ones, that's who." "Our world is so evil," I said passionately. I heard my lovely Jesus Christ reply, "It was not created that way. Now daughter please take another look at the city island laid out before you." I looked out again at the massive buildings sprawling before my eyes. The island's edges have large type pillars that remind me of something out of the Grecian era of our world. They appear to go around the whole city to the waters edge but they are not physically connected to one another. I can see them in the back distance view behind the three central pyramids.

My eyes are drawn once again to my left to the tall buildings set up like the emergency camps' form by the government. Why would the fallen angels have such a place? Who or what is it for? The buildings are large and tall enough for a titan size fallen angel to enter yet I knew the nicer buildings were for them and the nephilim. "Jesus Christ what's kept inside those camp type buildings? Surely it's not the nephilim or fallen angels. Did they have servants or slaves? Is this where they stayed?" I asked, curious to know. "Daughter of Mine the answer is yes and no. They did have human and other servants but no they were not kept there. And yes daughter they had slaves too but those buildings are where they kept the humans and mutated beings that they sold in trafficked. This included any person or being they considered an enemy or were suspected of being disloyal," He finished saying. "Oh Jesus no, that's horrible!" I gasped. "Yes daughter of Mine it is," Jesus Christ replied.

After pausing momentarily to recover from this revelation I begin speaking again. "Jesus Christ my love what's inside the pyramids? I know the red one has at least one treasure room but what about the others? What's in the front one with the diamond of power on top of it and the one on the right with the blue sapphire?" "Daughter of Mine the one with the diamond of power is wherein the king resides along with the other higher ranking fallen ones loyal to him as well as his nephilim children. The throne room is also on the bottom level." "Is there a queen?" I asked. "There is but the fallen angels were created male not female. So even though the queen presents herself to your world as female I assure you I created him as a male." "Who's the king and queen Jesus christ? May I know this?" "You can daughter, lucifer is the king. Yet he as well as the other fallen ones choose at different eras in your world's history and have chosen often to go by other names such as with the queen. It is the angel gadreel whose one of his chosen names to be called is lilith. He also bears the title of Queen of Heaven even though he/she has been cast out of the Heavens. Deposed as its Queen since I have reclaimed the upper Heavens by Father's command under the commanding army of Michael the Archangel and his army of warrior Angels," he finished.

"Does this mean she..... I mean he doesn't have a throne here in Atlantis?" I ask quickly. "No, he has one here that sits a little behind that of the King's throne for when he chose to be here on the Earth. But gadreel, lillith's preference was to be worshipped from the sky under various names and languages," Jesus Christ said from the Heavens. "Okay, then what's in the pyramid with the blue diamond, the sapphire Jesus Christ?" I asked thoughtfully. I heard his calm voice say quickly, "Daughter inside that one is where the controls are kept for the city. You could call it command central. From here they can interconnect with other pyramids, obelisks, and other strategic buildings and items and connect them together. This is far superior than anything mankind has seen and will be presented to your world as alien technology. Antichrist will be able to connect to the pyramid and diamonds of power technology to control your world with an iron unholy fist," He replied.

"Oh wow, no wonder that's the reason he's been desperately seeking for Atlantis. It's not just the black cube alone then is it?" "No," Jesus Christ replied, "he's after all that's inside Atlantis. In addition to the command center there is also a direct portal that's been created to enter the spiritual barrier, the wall dividing them from your world. The physical from the spiritual inside your world's firmament. From here they had the capability to trade, hunt, and sell souls more so than they are able to do now." "Oh that's not good! Jesus Christ, are you going to allow it?"

"Daughter of Mine when the two realms merge completely as they are soon to do, the physical with the spiritual, what the enemy doesn't realize until now since I'm revealing it to you now daughter the spiritual wall barrier will no longer be accessible as it once was to them, their demons, or technology. They will have to look for other ways to trap souls. Many still do not realize anyway when they look into the soul or the soul's mind that's been captured they can no longer see the truth of what is to come. In this time a strong delusion with the strongest still yet to come all they can see is only glimpses of delusional images in both the past and future of your world's happenings found inside its timeline."

He continued. "Only Mine daughter, those who are truly Mine and are avidly seeking Me, spending time in My Word, reading, studying, praying, doing all I have instructed can see clearly at this time the truth of all that's come. All I'm sending and all that's allowed to come except for a select few of the unsaid that I'm also using to bring the hidden truths of things out in the open." "Jesus Christ does that mean whoever controls Atlantis controls the other pyramids above and below the land and seas?" I asked. "It does daughter Mine," he replied. "How do they protect the city from attacks? Maybe it doesn't need it," I said then continued. "Who in their right mind would attack an island of titan sized fallen angels and giants?" "That would be those called by Me. My redeemed 144,000 and Heavenly host in a future time shall visit such locations bringing a swift hand of righteous judgment," He said in an authoritative voice full of assurance. "Oh wow, surely they have some type of defense system then," I said quickly. "They do," He replied.

"The controls are inside the command center inside the pyramid on the right. The large columns you noticed daughter around the outer edges of the land and also around the camp area for those to be trafficked create an energy field through vibrations and sound frequencies that when generated incinerates anything that touches it that's not protected by Me." "Oh," I said, "maybe then these pyramids hidden and in the open across our world should be somehow prayed against now in Your Name." When He answered me I could tell he was smiling. "That's my warrior daughter. My Holy Spirit shall direct you because each pyramid, though built basically the same, they are also created differently in hopes My praying children won't be able to take them out or at least keep them longer than they're allotted time." "Okay Jesus Christ my love I will be asking Sweet Holy Spirit my friend on how to pray against those and even the things like the obelisks," I replied back to Him.

As I continued to look out across the ancient city my mind raced with so many questions. "Jesus Christ my love how come this city of Atlantis is still lost? Wouldn't they know and remember the location since fallen angels are created as Holy Angels before they fell? They are eternal beings. What keeps them from locking on some type of signature such as the diamonds' power?" I asked thoughtfully. "Daughter of Mine, I have taught you well on how to ask questions to get answers with results. Well done. The whole of Atlantis when sunk and moved was encased in a barrier that not only keeps any signatures to being detected from inside your Earth and its firmament. I have also removed the memory from history and those who lived during this time era in your world's history. This includes all of the whole kingdom of darkness. By My Father's command it was spoken and it was done. In its place are bits and pieces of its history and existence. It's called by many names and clues to its existence leads to one dead into another from continent to continent, from sea to sea until I call it forth again when Father commands it. Most believe Atlantis is a fable as they once thought aliens were and robots with its own intelligence that's consciously aware of its own existence. Now the robots and androids walk among you. The aliens are on their way but through deception as demons, nephilim, and fallen ones disguise themselves as these benevolent and evil visitors from the sky and world beneath the earth's crust. And I say Atlantis shall resurface as the nephilim, fallen ones, and demons return to the Earth's physical realm aiding in the ushering of antichrist's full agenda of one united world, religion, and money unified and forced to worship him. Again I say daughter this is but one city, the main one that shall be allowed to return to fulfill antichrist's seven-year reign of terror more or less."

"Jesus Christ do I need to walk around the city even though I'm able to see a further distance than normal? What more do I need to see or do?" "Daughter, all you need to do is warn the world what's coming. Those who have ears to hear and a heart to listen will seek Me for the truth of these things. My truth daughter, My truth," Jesus Christ said to me earnestly. "Do I need to draw this my love Jesus Christ?" "Yes daughter, the parts My Holy Spirit lead you to do." "Okay what do I need to do now?" I asked. He responded quickly, "Now daughter of Mine you wake up." Which I did immediately with each time the dreams sting vividly in my mind. There's so much coming. Father God and Jesus Christ I don't know how anyone will be able to make it if they're not anchored In You."
