

I Say This 6-2-24@9:14PM

For those who are tired and weary I say come, rest in Me awhile.

For those who have stood in the face of adversity of the enemy and can stand no more I say lean on Me. I will be your strength.

For those who have lost family and friends for the cost of carrying My cross I say this.... I promise you it will all be worth it.

Watch Me take it all and make it into something wonderful for you.

For those of you who have cried out in despair in overwhelming attacks from one battle to another I say this. Your strength is not your own. Hide under My wing and let Me fight your battles little children.

For those still struggling to know My voice. My sheep know My voice. Spend more time with Me and it will become clearer.

For those of you who are crying out for the salvation of those they love and know I say this. Those who are Mine will come. I will not lose a one so don't give up. Keep fighting and praying!

Little daughter I said all this for My beloved children. I love them so very much.

But now.....

For those who seek to destroy My children's lives I say this. I see all your evil doings. There is a holy and just payday coming for you.

To all who have raised a hand against My little ones as they fight hard to stand true in Me Jesus Christ, I say this. When I'm finished with My hand of judgment upon your lives you will have wished you did choose to drown yourselves with a millstone instead of falling into My righteous hands.

To those who defame My children thinking destroying their names would make them fall I say this. You have underestimated My children's strength in Me! What you tried to take from My children through evil deeds and lying tongues I shall restore to them because it is My Name Jesus Christ they walk in, not their own..... Remember Job?

Daughter your enemy as your world so often says doesn't have a clue to the real understanding of genuine love that My true children exhibit as a reflection of Me.

To those who have betrayed, misused, and infiltrated so many of My children's lives in your attempts to destroy them and stop them from walking in the call I have placed on their lives, I say this. This was only allowed....I say it again, this was only allowed so My children could be refined and purged by the trying fire of testing.

Look how you have failed lucifer light bearer! See how your power of fear has diminished in My children who walk fully in Me. Why is this so? How is it possible?

Little daughter I say it is because those who seek Me shall find Me. Those who spend time with Me have My presence all around them. These are My children who do not fear you demons of darkness, nor the fallen angels that fell into sin.

I have created a breed of My children who once again walk by faith and not by sight. They live for Me and not the world. They reach out to the lost and dying no matter the cost to them. This is not only My 2 end time witnesses or 144,000 and you know this daughter being one of them. It's all My children rising up in the power and understanding of My Name, My Blood, and My presence in their lives.

I say to you this...kingdom of darkness.

These are My children who strike fear into the very heart of your kingdom! These are My children tested, tried, and proven true. These I shall take home shortly to be with Me in My Heaven. You know it's true for its written!

Kingdom of darkness I say this. When it comes to My children, you haven't seen nothing yet, because my children stand in Me!

Now a word of warning for some of My dear children. Be careful unless the enemy inserts pride into your hearts at being called as one of My 144,000. Boastful pride shall cause you to fall. Repent now before it's too late. My children walk in humbleness and love. My children are servants to all. You are warned. You know who you are. Repent now! I love you but only those pure of heart like that of a pure virgin shall be called. Then accepted into My 144,000 as Warriors and Priests.

Little children I say this. Keep your lamps trimmed for the Midnight Call has already gone out and I your Groom am on My way. I love you, My children. Stay faithful to Me.

Your Bridegroom Jesus Christ, Yeshusa Ha Mashiach, Son of the living God Jehovah.
