

Netanyahu & Trump Dream 6-10-24@ 5: 35 PM

I'm here my love Jesus Christ. You have shown me many things by dreams, too many for me to write them all down. Each one is precious to me even though most have been hard things to see of what's coming. I dreamed again last night of Benjamin Netanyahu in a meeting with President Donald J. Trump.

He was speaking to President Trump these words. "Fear not my friend we are called to each step away from our position of power for the greater good, but we both shall return to our rightful places. President Trump nodded his head and replied, "My departure will not be far behind yours as the council has declared it. But our removal is necessary to bring our new world order into place."

Netanyahu nodded his head yes as he spoke these words. "It is necessary so the need will arise among our nations people for us to return in greater power than before. Devastation and destruction and some loss of life must occur for us to return."

"And when we return," President Trump cut in, "our nations will be crying out and begging for our return." "Yes," Benjamin Netanyahu replied, "a little disgracing or a little jail time as our nations crumble to make our people think us as their equal and then lift us up as their nation saviors." President Trump laughed a short laugh then answered him saying, "I'm good with that."

"I agree my friend," Netanyahu responded then said, "now let's officially sign the documents in the eyes of the world to pave the way for the unified religion starting with Jerusalem first." "And with the trilateral documents soon coming you will have Israel's third temple. Very few will connect the dots," President Trump responded smoothly.

"Yes, we must not forget the temple. It must be built for its written in the Tanakh (Tana)," Netanyahu replied back to President Trump. "It's in the Bible too," President Trump replied almost sarcastically as if he found humor in the situation. Netanyahu responded with a small smile as he said, "Let's go my friend. The world is waiting, and we have two very important roles to fill to ensure our new world is firmly established."

At these words they both walked out of the grand office they had been meeting in alone. Although I tried to see the details of the room all my eyes would focus on was a beautiful wooden desk that had a flip calendar laying open upon it. I tried but I couldn't see the month to read it, but I saw the year even though it was upside down to my view. It read 2017 and then the scene changed.

Next Scene:

I'm standing outside on a large weathered-looking wooden porch with waist high banisters overlooking a grand lake. It's beautiful here with the trees and nature all around even though I could hear people nearby. I reached out to get a drink from the glass of water sitting beside me on the wooden rail and I noticed I was wearing armor, more specifically armed guards.

I quickly looked at myself and saw I was dressed in lightweight yet indestructible gleaming armor. It is the Armor of God I know immediately in the dream. I am fully dressed in it from head to toe I surmised as I reached up to feel the lightweight helmet sitting lightly yet securely upon my head. Examining it closer I see the armor has a faint red glow to it and I understood this is because I have asked it to be covered in the precious Blood of my lovely Jesus Christ.

I heard footsteps walking toward me on the wooden porch that creaked from under the weight of the approaching person. I looked up and saw its Joshua, a member of the 144,000 Warriors of Light. Jesus Christ's end time army of Warrior Priests. He looked at me and asked, "Are you ready? It's time to go."

I reached over and picked up my Holy Bible I had laying on the railing beside the half-drunk glass of clear water. As I lifted it off the porch railing it quickly changed into a magnificent, mighty sword of God. "I am now," I said with a smile. "Where are we headed now?" I asked Joshua quickly as we headed down the wide steps of the porch. "Jerusalem," he replied then continued.

"President Trump and Benjamin Netanyahu have met via the Internet in secret in their hidden bunkers as war progresses in both nations. They have activated the last piece needed for antichrist to be elected. There will come from this a false peace that shall not stand."

I responded in surprise these words, "President Trump still went forward with the agreement and prior plans even though the council of 13 and the hidden secret society betrayed him!" "Yes," Joshua replied as we quickly got into an off-white Land Rover type vehicle.

There's another man also I knew was a member of the 144,000 in the driver's seat that's on the right side of the vehicle. We continued our conversation after we climbed into the vehicle. The driver gave me a smile and a quick nod of his head. I knew they normally don't have to travel by vehicle unless someone still human like me is with them. Or they're handling supplies for all in need that belong to my lovely Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

"What happened Joshua?" I asked. He replied, "Trump still believes it was Vladimir Putin and other leaders of the world that went against the plan and invaded Babylon which is still called America although she is no longer a superpower in the world today. But we all know that President Trump's connections and position are in reality greater than a mere President of the United States."

"The United States are no longer united in many ways Joshua. She's been civilly and physically divided then bombed and invaded. When will he turn?" I asked then continued. "When will President Trump be given the proof of all the deception, lies, and trickery of antichrist, the council of 13, and the secret hidden society so that once he sees it, realizes it, and understands the implications of the information he will rise up and become the called to be defender of the country of America and its people?"

Joshua looked at me with a grin although his intelligent blue eyes showed the seriousness of the situation. Then he spoke. "That time is now. This is where we will be going after we make the stop in Jerusalem where you will meet up with your counterpart and you will declare boldly the evils of Antichrist and his regime of the one world, soon to be totally unified government."

“From there you both will make yourself known to America's President Trump in his secret chambers with the scrolls of Heaven bearing all the undeniable truth. Here also you will share the true gospel of Jesus Christ to him in all its glory and he will soon decide the fate of his soul. As you can see daughter of Heaven's court things are not as a world Bible scholars, teachers and evangelist taught it would be for these end time days.”

The tall dark-haired man in the driver's seat spoke up and said. “That is because all the mysteries once sealed had not been fully opened. Mankind pieced together what pieces they had and then glued them together so to speak leaving no room for the newly revealed pieces to fit in. This also has been one of the causes for some of the Lamb’s children, the remnant of our brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ our Captain to be left behind when He returned for His bride who made herself ready in Him.”

“I understand,” I responded quickly. “Where do I meet up with the other one like me in Jerusalem? I asked the two men of the 144,000 with me in the vehicle. “Actually,” Joshua replied, “it's just outside at the Wailing Wall,” and then I awoke.
