

The Hybrids Are Coming Dream 6-17-24 to 6-23-25

Father God in Jesus Christ's Name I've come to write down the dream about the coming hybrids to America and Israel but also to the UK. Sweet friend Holy Spirit please lead me. I have had this dream since the 17th of June but the visions have been coming for a few weeks before this. I'm standing on 1 John 2:27 and John 14:26.

It begins with my eyes seeing an army. A massive army dressed in dark green military dress uniforms. They are marching in perfect unity carrying what looks like some sort of laser type rifle solid black in color. There are rows upon rows upon rows as far as my eyes could see. They march in perfect time with one another. I saw that underneath their feet looks like a massive red carpet they are marching on. Their faces are Chinese.

I saw now on my left has appeared a red dragon that's flying through the air and lands on a balcony where many men are standing. Again, all Chinese that I understood were powerful men in the CCP. The Chinese Communist party. None seemed afraid of the large flying red dragon with its long tail and long whiskers on its face. Then suddenly the dragon transforms into the form of a man. The man is Xi Jinping.

He watches the soldiers move in perfect sync with each other. Then he laughed out loud then said. "The hybrids are ready and the red carpet has already been laid out for their arrival in America." Then the same changed.

I found myself inside an office. A grand office with an official looking desk with a monitor on the left. There is a light shining down upon it and the rest of the room is dark. I heard a door open and then footsteps. I saw a figure of a man in a suit I could tell, walk into the light area and pull out the rolling chair. He sat down and I saw it's Vladimir Putin.

He turns on the screen and presses a button and speaks a few words in Russian I could somehow understand. "Send it through," he speaks with the voice of authority. The room is now lit up also by the light from the monitor screen yet he doesn't turn on any other additional lighting. I don't think he's aware he's in the dark. He is about to have I understood a conversation he wants kept secret and hidden from all but the participants of the meeting.

Within moments a face appeared on the video monitor that Vladimir Putin is now gazing intently upon. It's the face of Xi Jinping. Vladimir speaks first. "Xi, I hope I haven't kept you waiting too long. Safety and security is of the utmost importance. This location is secured." "As well as mine," Xi Jinping responded and then he continued.

"I am to advise you that the schedule has been moved up. Our hybrids are ready before schedule. I am to offer our assistance to guarantee all the Hybrids in your Labs will be fully tested, trained, and programmed for the invasion on the American soil. They are to be prepared and finished before you complete those to be sent against Israel and the United Kingdom," Xi Jinping said with the voice of confident authority. Putin responded quickly and a little harshly. "Why is it that these orders are coming from you and not the council itself?" Xi Jinping appeared not the least bit concerned by Putin's tone of voice in his questioning.

"My friend," he said smoothly, "you could not be interrupted as you were discussing with the young Kim Jong-Un the final details to cement his allegiance to our cause. Now that we have his loyalty and that of his country's publicly and officially and no longer in secret we can now focus on completing the final details of the invasion of America, Israel, and the United Kingdom. Should you require further details then you may go through Antichrist's right hand man. He has all the plans in detail from the council of 13 and the hidden secret society."

Putin's face relaxed and he replied in a soft voice. "I see...ah yes. The meeting with Kim jong-un was necessary. I have promised him the South Korean land as part of his compensation besides delivering his long-awaited Christmas gift to the American people. I say they will not like his choice of present seeing how it's one with nuclear power." Then he left softly, finding his own comments amusing.

Xi Jinping joined in with the laughter. When it stopped he began speaking once again. "Vladimir Putin you have been chosen to lead in the formation of the coalition to destroy America and bring her to her knees. You have done well. Now let's finish finalizing the last details. We have already offered our hand to aid you with the readiness of preparing your hybrid elites. What about young Kim Jong-Un's he has started creating with the technology we have supplied him? Did he update you in the meetings of the status of this hybrid army?"

Putin responded, "Yes he did. Although his quadrants are smaller in size than what we have coming they're just as lethal. They will be ready on time due to the lesser numbers. We will take you up on your offer Xi. The facility under the waters near Kamchatsky is where the majority are left still in preparation status. These are the ones designated for the americans."

"At the underwater complex located at the Barentis sea are those being prepared for the United Kingdom and Israel. The neurochip interfaces are being implanted into these already but further programming will be needed. I understood," Putin continued, "you are supplying the majority that will enter into Canada when she shows her support getting aid to the Americans. Has this changed?"

Xi shook his head no then spoke. "We are united in our cause. We should have our victory over the Americans as well as the Israelis. We will attack and invade the UK and Canada so there will be very little reinforcements of aid and military equipment that can be sent to either one."

"Yes," Putin acknowledged happily and said, "America will fall! We will trample her under our feet and take her people captive." "Those we leave alive," Xi Jinping replied with a serious smile. "You are right my friend," Putin responded. "We still have little difficulty in taking down and subduing America. They've already from the inside rolled out the red carpet for us and they're simply waiting for the "go" signal. We will take down Israel too," he continued.

I watched the video monitor closely as Xi Jinping leaned in closer, his face filling the screen. "That may not be as easy as you consider it to be my friend," he said quickly. "The Americans have turned from their God that once protected them. This is how we are able to defeat them. It's written in their mystical book called the Word of God. It is also written that Israel will not be defeated but their Messiah shall come to their aid."

Putin laughed a little uneasy then replied, "The light bearer has assured us this could be changed and they will fall too. We will follow the plan and will remove the Christian God's Son fully out of our one world religion making Him into just another prophet with no power greater than the light bearer or the other dark Lords that have empowered one man, their chosen called the Antichrist in Bible fables to unite and rule our world with an iron fist of unity."

Xi Jinping studied Putin space closely then said, "I pray to the gods you are right. There has been little evidence of late that the Jesus of the Bible is all-powerful when you observe His so-called followers. Yet with the dark Lords, true power can be felt and attained."

"Then all is set?" Putin asked Xi Jinping. "Yes," he replied, "the suits of invisibility have now been made public so the Americans know we have them now. Our hybrids do not feel pain. Show no emotions. They don't need sleep nor require much food, if any. They're directly connected to our chosen light bearer's son and king through the AI neural links and other programming."

"The suits can allow them to walk through radiation, fire, snow, and water with very little damage being done. They have incredible strength and their weapons are fresh from the nephilim facility. Much of what we have acquired is being slowly released to the Americans intelligence and military leaving them still loyal to the dark lords, the fallen ones. But also without any time for them to be prepared for what has been activated and is on its way. Our hybrids from our Nations and that of Kim Jong-Un's shall demolish all resistance quickly."

Putin put the tips of his fingers together as he leaned back in his chair. "All is coming together," he said. "It won't be long before the other countries of the coalition shall begin producing their own hybrids and we don't want them to get too much technology or we might have to crush new resistance to our cause." "Agreed," Xi Jinping replied.

"We will keep our support hidden of our Iran and Iraq's nuclear aid. This is what the council has stated. Then we shall continue as we are now." "Thank you Xi Jinping. It's always a pleasure to speak with someone of like-mindedness and intelligence." Xi Jinping nodded his head and the monitor went blank and the lights went out in the room. Then I awoke.
