

The Heads Up Dream 4-5-25 @12:11 AM

I dreamed again, my Lovely Jesus Christ. Father God, I ask in Jesus Christ Name that sweet Holy Spirit brings it all to my memory as I write it down. Please don't let me write one word that's not from You. John 14:13-14 tells me when I ask anything in Jesus Christ Name that You will be glorified through Jesus Christ My Love, and also He will do what I ask in His Name; this means according to 1 John 3:22-24 and 1 John 5:14-15 tells me. "Little Daughter of Mine, your request is granted." "Thank You, Father God." "You are welcome, Little One."

It began when I found myself looking down into my hand, which I was holding open and flat (flat out). There inside my extended hand was a quarter (25 cent piece coin money, for those of you that's not inside the United States). One quarter; it's heads up. "It's round," I said to myself, "much like the Moon when it's fully round. But this is a quarter, it's only a quarter." Then the scene changed.

I am walking down a street in a city, a large bustling city, from the amount of well-dressed people walking to and fro. I felt strongly to look down at the sidewalk, even though people were moving in each direction. There, near a street light, I saw something small, round, and shiny. I felt I needed to see what it is. It's an almost urgent feeling to see it. I looked up at the coming crowd of people, then back at the shiny object. It looks like a quarter, but I'm not sure.

Suddenly, I saw a man that looked like he might be homeless reach down for the shiny object. I heard him say, "Heads up. It's heads up." Then he looked me directly in the eyes with piercing blue eyes I recognized. They are the eyes of my beloved Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ, but He has the appearance of an old homeless man. His hands have partial gloves with the fingers removed. He's wearing a long, brown dirty coat with ill-fitting baggy clothes. His hair is unkept and dirty, and is matted. He has days worth of stubble on His chin. But His eyes...His eyes are piercing blue, with flames in them. He spoke again, "Heads up, Daughter. Heads up. It's a quarter." Then I awoke.

"Heads up", as a phrase in the dictionary means:

- An advanced warning of something
- A message that alerts or prepares

Verses:

Matthew 11:28-30, Mark 10:23-27, Amos 3:6-8, Ezekiel 16:49-50, Psalms 33:4-15, Jeremiah 11:11, Amos 3:11; 14, Micah 5:10-15, Matthew 12:25, Galatians 6:7, 2 Timothy 3:7, John 3:18

Who is Jesus Christ? He is the Son of God who came to earth as both God and man, according to the Word of God. He is unconquerable, unstoppable, all-powerful. He's KING of Kings, LORD of Lords. He's the Truth, the undisputable Champion of Love. He's unmovable to the enemy. He's the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last. But what about His Name? There's power in His Name. Here's just a few (and I'll give you verses to these).

His Name is power (Philippians 2:9-11; John 13:14; Luke 10:19).

His Name is healing (James 5:14-16; Acts 3:6)

He breaks chains (Isaiah 61:1; Psalms 107:16; John 8:36)

It (His Name) redeems souls (Ephesians 1:7; Colossians 1:14)

It's life (John 14:6)

It tears down strongholds (2 Corinthians 10:3-5)

When spoken in faith; conquers the enemy (Luke 10:19; 1 John 5:4-5)

It delivers (Colossians 1:13)

Brings peace (Philippians 4:7; John 16:33)

It's given from Heaven (Matthew 1:21)

It gives salvation (Acts 4:12, Romans 10:13)

He makes the enemy subject to the children of God (Luke 10:19; Mark 16:17)

It justifies (1 Corinthians 6:11)

What about His Name? His Name is power, healing, breaks chains, redeems souls. It's life, it tears down strongholds, when spoken in faith; conquers the enemy. It delivers, brings peace, it's given from Heaven, it's salvation. It makes the enemy subject to the children of God, it's salvation justifies. There's power in the Name of Jesus Christ! Only believe!
