

Marv from Marfoogle News Dream 1-27-25@6:51 AM With Partial Confirmation 2-1-25

This dream began when I was speaking to Marv from the Marfoogle news on the internet and YouTube. He had a woman with him that I felt was his wife in this dream. I'm not sure in reality if it's her. She had blonde straight hair that went to about shoulder length although she had it pulled back with a clip instead of a ponytail holder at the back of her head. She was dressed in a white coat with round patches colored charcoal gray on its elbows. It zipped up but she left it open. It looked like the thick polyester filled coats. She was tan skinned as with a suntan and was somewhere in her late twenties or mid thirties range I felt. He is in a dark blue parka type coat and looks like he does now in his videos.

I'm standing and talking to them and he's telling me a lineup of what to expect in the next few weeks. Actually I feel it involves four distinct events concerning our nation and world. As he was speaking I remember I was telling him that's not how it's supposed to be, I thought about one of the events. As he spoke, one of the events was the war with China and Taiwan. Another was a massive large amount of snow sent to prevent and or hinder in America our military and land in preparation of something big coming. Another of these events was the turning of the time to be of when Putin shall fire upon the American people with his nuclear weapons with the timing not as the world had expected. Because of unnatural occurrences that shall take place now, prior than what was once thought by ignorant men and women of the world. Immediately my mind went to the verse in 2 Corinthians that tells us we're not ignorant of the enemy's devices, nor his schemes are plots with Jesus Christ's help.

As he proceeded to talk with his wife next to him I realized we're inside the dark. It's either outside or inside. I'm not able to tell because now all I saw was a light like you see when someone is making a video outside in an unlit area. It makes me feel like in this dream it's a secret meeting at this point whereas at the beginning I saw everything in color concerning them both. It's like the greenish color a video has in its appearance when taken outside or in the dark with low lighting inside. Marv continues to speak. "Our expectations were that these things would have started by now and it's only the mercies of God that they haven't, now though nothing can stop them. But again, it's not like the world supposed."

I listened carefully as he continued. "Four events with each event occurring within a 4-week moment of time until the grids go down and our world is plunged in darkness. Who's behind it? We're not sure since it appears it will be worldwide. Our intel tells us from our ex-military sources that President Trump would have already been briefed about this before he was sworn into office. Yet very few in the news are talking about it." I nodded my head briefly. His wife and he exchanged looks as he spoke again. "The coming snow that's forecasted is to be more than expected and some places might see continuing blizzard-type conditions. While other places in the United States may only have a few inches even before the grid goes down."

"I don't understand," I said, "what kind of snow are you talking about? Winter is snow or another kind?" My whole view filled up to where I could only see his face as he said, "Dex says it's predicted to be both. In addition to the war between China and Taiwan our world shall face the challenges of winter snow and man-made dirty snow that is now scheduled to fall on parts of our nation and others. There's more coming." "If this is so," I said, "then what has changed? What's different or what have I misunderstood?" "That's just it," Marv said, "How can you misunderstand when it's remained hidden from all till now?" "What has remained hidden?" I asked. "What is coming that none of us know about? Can you tell me?" I asked. "It's been hidden there in plain sight for all our eyes to see," he said.

"Taiwan shall be invaded by Xi Jinping, China's forces. It's inevitable now before their next Year's celebrations fully expire. Snow shall come in an abundance of wintry mix and it's now firmly in our world's forecast. Snow in Ukraine is to come in that of the predicted unnatural kind but also snow in abundance in Canada and the US of the natural kind. Though this that shall fall is due to our technology manipulating the polar vortex causing cold air to drop into a region once again.

The unknown element before the grids go down and our world is shrouded in darkness minus those of us who have prepared, there has been planned an event from our enemies to unleash upon us a destruction by the genetic kind that alters the immune system. Making it susceptible to the next big pandemic that shall outdo in its numbers of deaths of those in the covid-19 pandemic. It has come to Dex and my attention that disease X is not what we were told was coming but it's something different and it's far worse. It's a flesh-eating disease! A mutagen that when it contacts the skin if not soon removed shall cause a rotting of the flesh with huge sores. It will look like leprosy and steroids."

"When?" I asked in alarm. "I know of a leprosy type flesh eating disease I had warned about years ago that my lovely Jesus Christ told me about when He mentioned the Marburg disease coming," I finished quickly. Marv and his wife looked at each other then back to me as he said, "We can only deal in legitimate news and not just prophetic warnings although we believe in them too. But we can't share anything when we go live or do a video that we cannot back up with links and evidence of where the information has come from since we are dealing with worldly news and presenting it as so." "I understand," I replied. "Does this disease X have a name? Is it called leprosy or something different?" I asked.

"It's a leprosy type of disease. It spread through the air by aerosols, mists (fogs), chemtrails, and inside topical products so far we have found out. It shall attack the flesh causing huge sores and rotting of the flesh in what I can only call of biblical proportions. It is still only named disease X, the real disease X. So what we are looking at from our ex-military intel is that its full release into the public is right before the grids go down for our world. Rumor is that they will be down for at least 3 days if not more. This means everything. Our banking systems, our governments, grocery stores, gas stations, the internet, Mark said quickly, "all come to complete halt."

"What is the cause of the grids going down for 3 days or more?" I asked. "And for it to be worldwide," I added. "Some say it's the military, others say it's the governments of the world taking them down for a world reset or invasion. While others issue warnings like NASA has that the sun's activity might be a direct cause for our world to be plunged into darkness," he replied. "And it could very well be the hand of God moving on an unjust and wicked world like in Moses and Pharaoh's day with all these other plans put into motion by our militaries and governments of the world when the darkness occurs," I said in a knowing voice. "I believe you're right," Marv replied. "Where does that leave our world?" He asked. "Where indeed?" I said then I awoke.
