

An Official Death Certificate from the Angel Gabriel 7-23-24@5:48 PM

I'm here to pray my lovely Jesus Christ.

"Daughter of Zion, of faith. Daughter of faith." "Gabriel?"

I see the angel Gabriel standing before me in full gold, shiny, holy armor that radiates with the glory of God in Heaven. He has his left hand upon the hilt of his sword as if he had just sheathed it. There are four other angels with him all dressed in shiny, holy armor as well. When I look up and make eye contact with him from where I had been praying, kneeling on the floor he nods his head and speaks.

"Daughter of Zion I bring you a message from Heaven's Courts." "I'm listening Gabriel." He turns to the four Angels behind him with their golden intricately carved Archer bows and nods his head. They immediately vanished from the room. My son is in the next room. I don't know if he will hear us.

Gabriel's Angel turns back to me and says, "Daughter of faith and of Zion the time has come to make another official announcement from the Courts of Heaven. Will you deliver it?" "I will Gabriel if Jesus Christ will help me." "You know the Risen Lamb helps all His children who will let Him. I smiled slightly at Gabriel as I wiped the tears from my eyes with the tissue from a nearby box of Kleenex. "I'm listening Gabriel. May I ask where did the other four Angels go who are with you?"

He smiled a warm smile of kindness that reached his blue eyes but I could still see the seriousness there as well. He's on business for Father God in Heaven but he took time to answer my question. "Daughter of Heaven they have been sent to scout the area for any random enemy. You are well protected and hidden here and it has enraged the enemy's forces because they still cannot locate you though they have utilized all their demon scouts, networking, electronics, and technology. The Great God of All, the Almighty I AM has commanded you to be hidden. So shall it be. But there are those who wander on their normal assignments in their territory. This is what they're watching for."

"Thank you Father God and thank you Gabriel." He nodded his head and then reached for a thin, tube-like container I now see that somehow attached to the right side of his belt. He takes it in his hands and I see there is a hook type latch about midways on the slender part of the tube. On each end looks like a greenish gold color end cap that has three levels to each with the smallest on top. Then a medium size, then the largest that's connected to the slender tube-part of the container. I feel it's a scroll container of sorts but I've never seen one like this before that Gabriel has brought this time.

The outside of the tube shaped body is solid white. It has a red corded string on one end. I watched as he quickly opened the small latch and I heard what sounded like a small whoosh of air coming out of it. He lifts up one part and I see a thin rolled up piece of paper with some type of seal holding it closed. The seal is dark green and he breaks it easily with his hands. He reaches in and pulls out the small rolled up paper inside and shuts the tube scroll holder and attaches it back to his belt and its original spot. He begins unrolling the paper.

"That's strange, it looks like there is more than one sheet of paper or parchment, whatever it is." The paper appears to be a golden tan with some colors lighter in areas and others darker of the same golden tan color but in varying shades. Gabriel looked at me. "Yes Gabriel I'm ready."

"Hear ye oh inhabitants to the Earth, of this world that the Righteous Creator and Judge, the Almighty Creator Elohim, Yahweh, Jehovah God has spoken. Hear the word from your God and His Son Lord and Ruler of all, Savior and King Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha'Mashiach the world's Messiah."

"Your sins were weighed, you were warned.

Your case was heard, you were warned.

Your verdict of guilty was determined, you were warned.

You were called to repent and turn back to your God and Creator through His Son Jesus Christ the Sacrificial Lamb of for your sins. Few have complied. Those that have and are growing closer to their God through the Lamb of God His Son you are to watch for your time of departure which shall occur during the ending and beginning of a new day. A day which only the Holy Creator and Almighty I AM knows of when it is to occur. Even though the season of its time has been revealed to many of the Lamb's holy children made righteous in Him."

"In this verdict of guilty upon your world of ungodly and adulterous nations one filth has risen above them all in its lewd debauchery, callous lifestyles of chasing after pleasures for self but also for the heinous acts of the murder of the innocent, the capturing and selling of souls, the adopting of the ungodly, unholy evil ways of the fallen Angels who no longer worship or acknowledge Jehovah God, the Supreme of All and His Holy Son and Righteous Judge Jesus Christ as their God, Savior, and Lord." (Referring to where repeatedly the Holy Bible says Father God and Jesus Christ are One.)

"This nation is Babylon once known as America in the history books of your world. This is the official announcement that judgment's hand is set and will not be stopped. It shall continue pouring down upon your world increasing until it reaches the Lamb's white hot wrath. The Great Day of the Lord written about in the Holy Word of God also known by some as the Scripture of Truth."

"Hear you now oh world and inhabitants above and under the firmament's Heaven, land, and waters. This is the official announcement of the demise of the horrible and evil nation of Babylon. She is being divided inside by her people within and shall be ripped into pieces, divided in its physical land. This is the civil war that has already begun inside babylon's walls of people against people, state against states, governments, states, and people warring against one another."

"I present to you this official document, daughter of Faith from Heaven's Courts. Please sign it as official witness and representative of Heaven's Courts. As well as a daughter of the earth and one born inside the land walls of Babylon once called America."

Gabriel pulls the sheet of paper from behind the one he's reading and he hands it to me. As I take it he produces from somewhere I didn't see a long slim golden reed shaped stick. I take it also when he hands it to me and on one end I can see now a sharp point. It's some kind of writing pen. It's delicate and looks like it's made of gold. The paper reads, "Death certificate!"

"Oh no, Gabriel!" "Daughter of Zion please read the document and then sign on the space that says official witness." "My full name as I'm known by?" "Yes daughter of faith." "Gabriel this is a death certificate for Babylon but it also has America and the United States listed as other names once known by." "That is to ensure the document stands officially in all realms and in eternity."

"It says, Upon this day of receipt Babylon begins taking its last breath of life. Her life is being terminated for all the crimes created against mankind, against themselves in the defiling of their bodies, and hearts. For the capture, torturing, and murder of the innocent both young and old. For the practicing of witchcraft, divination, and idol worship. Their sins outweigh those of many nations combined."

"Mercy was given.

Grace was given.

Time was given for all to repent and mend their ways.

Babylon has only sunk further into her degradation and debauchery of sin. This is the notice of her impending death. Her head of power will be severed, her heart removed. Her people divided. Her land divided, bombed, invaded, encased with famine, plagues, and illnesses. Her homes shall go to her enemies, her people hunted. Her people shall lay dying in the streets. No food shall be available. And at the appointed time after the Risen Lamb with His Heavenly host, 144,000, and two witnesses reach all they can inside her walls and the 2nd Exodus is complete from her walls, her death shall be finalized by drowning. Sinking into the waters, seas of the deep to rise no more. Thus this is the official notice of death for Babylon the harlot, the unfaithful land that forgot her God to pursue her adulterous lovers of both land and fallen angels."

"Daughter of Zion, you are shaking. Peace be unto you." Tears filled my eyes. "Daughter Zion, why are you crying when you know more than most of the evil hearts and their doings in your nation of America known as Babylon to Heaven's Courts?" "Oh Gabriel it's for all my brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ who will have to endure all this."

"Daughter Zion it will have been by their own choice to be here because the Risen Lamb Jesus Christ and the Holy God Almighty and of Everlasting power have warned all repeatedly." You're right Gabriel. I will sign this document, this death certificate as official witness and I do it in my lovely Jesus Christ's Name." The reed-type gold writing pen appears to actually write liquid gold of some form but my writing is smooth and my name is clear. As I look at it one last time I know it won't be long now because these things have already been occurring here in America. Her heart.... her money is already failing.

"Here Gabriel." He took the signed death certificate for babylon....America and then the gold reed writing pen and signed a spot opposite of where I signed on the paper. He let me see him sign it. He places it back behind the other paper then speaks lifting his head toward the Heavens. "It's done, Lord God Almighty of all Ages and Creator of all." Then he begins speaking once again.

"At the signing of this official death certificate for Babylon her days have now become numbered without any changeable date and is in accordance with the end timeline created by the Majestic Creator of all, Jehovah God upon creation of the world the Earth and all its firmament. The firmament being the Heaven yet also the base of man's world called the Earth." Then he takes a small horn shaped trumpet or shofar from his right side that was hanging more toward the back of his waist, raises it to his lips and blows it one long solemn yet jovial blast. Then he reattaches it to his belt with the paper still in his left hand. He rolls them back up quickly.

"Gabriel do I need a copy of the death certificate we signed for babylon, for America?" He looked at me with serious eyes and replied, "No. Once it's signed and recorded in Heaven's Courts all notices will go out also to the kingdom of darkness, to lucifer and antichrist directly so they will know the command has been given for your nation's demise." "I understand."

He hooks the latch quickly, enclosing the papers inside the white, tube-like scroll container then said, "Daughter Zion you know it's not long before the blows begin coming quicker for your nation. I am to remind you as holy witness of God, though you will aid in the 2nd Exodus from time to time here in Babylon your full focus is your assignment in Israel. You have been allowed to still sound off warnings for this evil nation because the Risen Lamb still has faithful children here." "I know and for this I'm grateful." "Now I must go," Gabriel said as the four other Angels reappeared inside this room. He nodded his head at me as well as the other four angels. "Goodbye Gabriel." Now they're gone and I feel weak but also so very heavy hearted.
