

I'm Speaking to the Elite & Babylon 11-12-24@11:12 AM Shared 11-13-24

O' elite of this world, I speak to the elite of the world, who think you are untouchable. Who rules in the shadows considering My people as herds, as cattle, as something less than human. You let My people, My creation of mankind go hungry. You have caused famine on this world for My people, this world I created for My children, My people. O' elite of the world you have lost touch with reality. The reality is you live in My world I created! This earth is Mine and the fullness thereof. You are not above My hand.

And I speak to all the upper elite, not just the council of thirteen, not just the hidden secret society. I speak to those in power who were given the ability to rule. The wicked people get wicked rulers; the holy and God fearing people get holy rulers. But even in this rulers, elites, uppers of this world you have been weighed and found guilty. You slaughter children to your gods who are simply no more than demons and fallen angels in hopes of gaining more power. It's all a facade. All deception. True power comes from My Throne. I am Jehovah God, Creator of All. I speak and it is done whereas your "gods" have to create from something I already created. Where's the power in that?

O' elite of this world in every nation, every country, every hidden facility I see what you do. I see what you do to the children. I see your plans to try to change My creation by mutating the DNA. I see the plans that you have to try to mutate this world I created into something you think I would not let go of. I shall burn it all by fire when you're done. I will melt this earth and all that's in it. But not before you feel pangs of hunger and famine. Not before you are stripped from your wealth and high society parties and cocktails. Your secret meetings where you eat human flesh, I see it all.

You barter with your soul and you don't even own your soul, it's Mine. And therein is the deception. All souls are Mine. You do not have the ability to sell your soul. But you can lose your soul, in meaning losing the choice or the decision on where you spend your eternity. Your soul will either be in Hell, in the Lake of Fire or it will be in My Heaven that I am creating. For those....the mansions I have built. My Son, did He not say, "I will receive you unto Me."?

I'm destroying your bunkers and your food supplies, your stashes as you call them. Your gold shall become that of others and those that you serve shall betray you as they confiscate your gold and your food and give it to the Man of Sin so that he can rule with an iron fist. Then you will decide, "Do I take the Mark, or not?" A just reward for the evil wicked seeds you have sown throughout this world I created. I call out to the elite, the businessmen that make the high-powered deals, the lawyers, the bankers, the rulers, the elected officials. I call out to the kings and the queens. I set rulers up and I tear them down. Those of you looking to a man, calling him a god, a savior, you have lost sight of the truth. My Son is the Savior of this world. I sent Him to redeem and save this world. You are only being set up for the destruction that's coming. I'm speaking to Babylon.

This election did not change your fate, nor is your "savior" a savior. He is in league with the very ones that were tearing it down. You will see the deception come to pass. But in all this, he will be deceived himself. He will be betrayed himself and he will rise up and fight for your nation because of those of Mine that will not be ready when My Son comes. And this is My answer to their prayers to help those left behind. Your newly elected president (who's not really so newly elected, daughter), oh daughter, he will have to make a choice himself. Surrender, and serve Me or die and go to Hell with the rest of the elite who refuses to accept My Son Jesus Christ, as their Lord and Savior. I have raised him up and placed him into a position for such a time as this to give My children that's still inside of Babylon who were not ready a chance for the Second Exodus to occur.

Many will die before then and many will reach their destination, but in the end a martyr's life is what's expected for the majority of those left behind and those to come. Mercy's hand has been extended. It's been extended and even overextended as some would say. Because of the prayers of My children, My true children crying out for the lost, crying out for their loved ones, crying out for those to come, crying out for those left behind. I hear them every one and I do bottle their tears. This is My answer to your prayers to those left behind in Babylon: Donald J Trump.

But beware, beware when you raise somebody up above Me; I will bring him down. You either lift him up in prayer for his salvation or you be ready for the biggest deception that's to come, next to the Man of Sin. He is one of the elite, but some of them are savable. It's time for the dirty snow, daughter. It's time for a queen to rise for a moment. It's time for a surprise attack, followed by the fall of Babylon within one hour. Have not I spoken it? Have not I declared it? Elite of the world, I see you. I see you, I see you and your evil doings. Those that are able, repent now and I will have you washed clean by My Son's blood. Those who will not listen, prepare to meet your God in all His fury.

I'm done, daughter.
