

The 10 Holy Judgments Against America Dream 2-23-25 to 2-24-25 Shared 2-28-25

“In all that I show you, Daughter, at the start of it I give space for the people to repent.” I heard these words spoken as I entered into this dream. The voice seemed to fill everything. Then I found myself outside near a river. As I gazed at its beauty, I saw a movement out of the corner of my eye. I turned to see what had caused the motion and there I saw a lone figure sitting on a fallen log. I felt instantly drawn to him. I watched the man in the far distance raise his arm and motion for me to come. I had an overwhelming urge to comply. As I began walking, a little hesitant at first, I noticed he’s dressed in white, solid white. My heart skipped a beat and lurched in my chest. “Could it be?” I asked myself. I began walking briskly toward the man sitting on the log. I noticed his longer dark hair; he has a mustache and a beard. Joy filled my heart and I took off running to the seated man on the log. It’s my lovely Jesus Christ! As I neared Him, He stood up and opened His arms and He said with a smile on His face, “Daughter”. Then into His arms I ran. He gave me a hug that made me feel cherished and loved. I began crying in my joy, “Jesus! Jesus Christ my Love, it’s You!”, I said as joy flooded my soul. After a moment of being in the safety of His arms I asked, “What are You doing out here?”

“I’m waiting on you, Daughter of Mine. Come, sit with Me”, He said as He slowly released me and motioned to the huge fallen tree He had been sitting on before I arrived. “Where are we?”, I asked as I quickly sat down beside Him after He took His place. “After all, He is my Lord and King; He should go first,” I thought to myself. “Daughter”, He said, “It does not matter who sits first.”, as He smiled at me. He had known my thoughts once again. I smiled back at Him and said, “Okay.” We sat together for a few moments taking in the beauty of the lake. Finally I asked, “Where are we, my Love?” Jesus Christ responded, “Somewhere safe, so we will not be interrupted as I speak with you.” “I’m listening”, I replied and then said, “It was Your voice I heard speaking all around me as I arrived here, wasn’t it?” “Yes, Daughter, it was.”, came His reply as He began to speak.

“Before I move My hand in judgment, I send warnings through My children for all who will listen and obey. The things that I have shown you, for example, are different than how I show some of the others, so these messages can reach all with physical and spiritual ears to hear. You are willing to sacrifice your time, pushing all away to be with Me hours at a time. You have proven your faithfulness to come be with Me each day, regardless of whether I speak with you or give you a dream or a vision. You are content to come before Me in silence and keep your mind on My Father and Me and to just sit in Our presence.”, He finished. “I love You”, I said, “I can’t think of any other place I’d rather be.” “I know this, Daughter. You have also been obedient in sharing these things, not hiding the information even while knowing, at times, I could change what I have spoken. Because when My children pray, it will cause Heaven to respond in one way or another.” “So this is what You meant when You said You give the people space to repent, or time to repent, before what You have shown us happens. But You always show me in such detail at times, my Love”, I said. “Yes, because you’ve spent time at My feet and I have learned to trust you to also take time to write it out, not skipping anything like some do because of the length and details that’s being shown.

Now, Daughter, I’ve come to bring you understanding of a dream I have given you before I show you more.”, He said in a firm, yet gentle voice. “I’m listening”, I said quickly. He raised His right hand up and waved it slightly and there before us appeared what looked like a giant movie screen suspended by nothing in the outside air. It’s solid white, but there’s nothing on it. My mouth is hanging open in surprise at seeing a giant movie screen appear out of nowhere. I looked over at my lovely Jesus Christ. He pointed to the screen and said, “Watch, Daughter.” As I quickly obeyed, there appeared on the screen four different images, each displaying a man receiving an alert of the same sound on their cell phones and a message was displayed. Then all four men reached into their pant’s pockets and pulled out a set of car keys. I recognized these scenes. I’ve seen them before in another dream. These are the four men who were headed out to detonate the last four additional hidden suitcases with rogue nuclear devices hidden throughout America. I had asked an angel who had been flying in the air making an announcement about where we were at in our world’s timeline. The angel then showed me these scenes on a movie screen similar to the one before me.

“Jesus Christ, I have seen this before. You showed it to me in August 2024 in a dream You’ve had me call ‘Before the 7 Ends Dream’. The angel of God had declared this was the moment in time our world, America, was at.”, I said quickly. “Yes he did, and he was correct. Hear what I say, Daughter, as I open up your understanding of what this means as you have at times past sought Me for My truth. The moments frozen in time are where My children had been given grace to pray and to seek Me to move on behalf of My people. After this point of time, there would be allowed no more altering of the judgment declared upon your nation concerning the hidden nuclear suitcases. It was after this dream in which you see the frozen scenes before you on the movie screen that My children did begin praying. They had up until this point to cry out, to petition and pray for Me to move, because grievous are the sins of your wicked nation. The judgment of these suitcases detonating within your nation’s walls is fair. These things were shown to you to share because I always warn My people, My children, of My judgments coming forth out of My great love for them. This was the physical point on your world, though still in Heaven, that grace was still permitted for Me to intervene if My children chose to rise up and pray. And some did, Daughter. Many did, and this is why there will be only 10 that detonate and not 11 or the combined total of 12.”, my lovely Jesus Christ said with compassion in His blue eyes. “Thank You, my Love. Thank You for moving on our behalf.”, I said. “You’re welcome, Daughter.”

“Jesus, may I ask You about another dream You gave me that’s indirectly related to the 10 suitcases, as well?”, I asked Him and then added, “Even though You already know what it is?”

He gave a soft laugh as if He was enjoying our conversation as He said, "Please do, Daughter." I smiled back at Him, my heart overflowing with love for Him and then I asked, "In the 'Voter's Fraud Dream' You gave me in October of 2024 over a period of 3 nights, the same dream every time. In the part at the end when Joe Biden, his wife Jill, and Kamala Harris were talking, Joe Biden had mentioned setting off and detonating these suitcases to keep Trump from taking office. Why didn't they set them off? What happened?" "Prayer to Me, in My Name can change many things, Daughter. In this instance, this was not a command, the command to detonate, they could issue, even though the elite of your world still believe they are in control. They are not. I set up rulers and I bring them down. It's that simple. You were shown the evilness of their hearts and the schemes they were devising, but the time to detonate these 10 nuclear rogue devices hidden inside the suitcases inside your nation, Daughter, is given by My command alone. They will not be allowed to detonate no matter how much the enemy schemes, plans, or desires it to be done because this is part of the holy judgment sent down from My Father's Throne since the beginning of time. But, Daughter, this time has come. This is why I brought you here.", He finished saying. "What do You mean?", I asked. "I will tell you, but first let Me answer the unspoken question in your mind, which is 'What about Kamala Harris?' She is to return.

Now, Daughter, let's walk," Jesus Christ said as He stood up and held out His right hand to me. As I grabbed His hand and He helped pull me up from the low-lying tree, I felt what I can only describe as a jolt of holiness go through me, a jolt of power. "Come", He said. Immediately, the suspended movie screen vanished out of sight. Hand in hand, we walked down closer to the river bank's edge. It's beautiful here, but not as beautiful as my lovely Jesus Christ. He looked over at me and smiled, then He stood looking across the rushing river's water. Then He began speaking and His voice sounded like rushing water, too, that could be heard over the river. "There are 10 hidden suitcases, Daughter, part of the judgment against your nation, America, who is Babylon of old and new to Me, to Heaven. As it is written, she would rise to power. I have shown you all 10 of these locations, which you have shared, as well as some of them with other individuals, other children of Mine. There are to only be the 10, Daughter, although others voice their own opinion or openly lie to cause alarm and confusion in My Body of Believers. There are 10 judgments that still stand against your nation for your refusal to repent and ask Me to forgive them of their sins, their evil, wicked ways.

The 10 Judgments are:

- Civil Unrest and Civil War
- Famine
- Pestilence
- Diseases (known and unknown)
- Natural and Unnatural Disasters
- Economical Collapse
- A Divided Land Inside and Out

- War, Captivity, Enslavement
- Cannibalism
- She Will Be Sunk (never to be risen again)

The 10 suitcases are a symbolic representation, signaling the fulfillment to come of the 10 standing and remaining judgments against your land of Babylon-America. She is wicked and evil to the core of her being. Her roots, once connected and growing in Me through her people, are now filled with rottenness and decay because she, as a whole people, has pledged her allegiance to Lucifer and his dark kingdom. The time, the space granted for all to repent is closing shut as I begin sending forth the suddenlies in full force. It shall bring a string, a chain, of sudden destruction on this world and your nation as My 3 DAYS OF DARKNESS is soon ushered in by the great colorful dancing lights, made seeable upon this world by all that has occurred, combined with the Sun's solar activity. This, in part, is also due by man's use of the fallen ones evil technology, such as found at CERN, in which they have caused a rip, a hole, in the heavens, the stratosphere, allowing the Sun's activity to reach far into your earth's atmosphere in its lower levels.

What most fail to realize, Daughter, because we talk so much in depth when Father and I speak with you or show you something, we show you the process and steps in the stages it takes to get to the final judgment, because you have prayed earnestly to know Our hearts and Our ways in every way you possibly could in your human form. You have a deep-rooted desire to know Father and Me, to know Us as intimately as you can while still in your mortal body, even before you get to be with Us in Heaven. There are others like you, Daughter. You are not alone in this desire, and it pleases Us greatly. But few will take hours at a time to take down all We have to say. Father and I have never stopped speaking or trying to reach out to our beloved creation of mankind. It is you, mankind, who have failed to listen, or to reach out to Us as a whole people. But I have been shaking My children and rousing them from their sleep, like the 5 foolish and 5 wise virgins. It is the wise virgins who have come fully out of their sleep and who will be prepared for My return, not the foolish who have not any oil in them and who are still sleeping or partially awake. I love all My children, all My creation, but sin has a high cost with the end result of death both physical and spiritual. Daughter, this is the time upon your world for these things to begin occurring. Did I not have it written, there would be a cry of peace, then sudden destruction? Yes, Daughter, I did." And with these final words He spoke, I found the lake and my lovely Jesus Christ were gone and I'm sitting in my bed alone. I began praying immediately about all these things in my lovely Jesus Christ' Name.
