

My Sword is Unsheathed Already 1-6-25@ 2:18 PM

Behold! Behold daughter, people of this world, inhabitants of this world. I have come to set right that which is wrong. I have drawn My sword.

The Sword of the Lord.

The Sword of Righteousness.

The Sword of Justice.

I call forth the slayers. I strike, they strike. I move, they move. Daughter I warned this time would come. I am the Righteousness Judge of My Father. I am the Word and My Word, the Word of God has been used to judge this world also.

GUILTY! GUILTY! GUILTY!

My sword is unsheathed and it will not return to its scabbard till I have struck one end of the land to the other with My destroyer. My destroyer is here. I have warned this world like I did with Jeremiah, with Ezekiel, and Isaiah. When I send this sword across this land it shall slay the righteous and the unrighteous. But those who are Mine know to be ready for any moment I could come, or they could be taken out of here by death.

My sword is drawn.

My sword is drawn.

My sword is drawn and it will not be re-sheathed until I am finished and all is set in order again.

This has happened before. Read children My Word. Read Ezekiel 20, Ezekiel 21. For it is you who have separated the books into chapters, the scrolls, the parchments. See if this is not written in past times and I warned. I warn when I strike. The destroyer strikes. When I move, he moves. The destroyer, all four are released and in place.

This is the trying final hours I have warned you of. It begins and My Sword shall shed blood from one end of the land to the other in Babylon and in places to come. Including, you know daughter, you know..... Ukraine, Israel..... All these places are seeing...are seeing the fulfillment of what My Father has written and what I have been speaking to My children. No man, no nephilim, no fallen angel can stop what I command!

My sword is unsheathed already daughter, My sword is unsheathed already.

My sword daughter.

My Righteous Sword.

My Righteous Commands.

My righteous anger is unsheathed.

All because the world as a whole, as a whole body of people and inhabitants, you have refused to repent from your wicked evil doings and sins. Now you feel My sword.

I am My Father's Son. I came as both God and man. I am My Father's Son and I shall carry out His every Word. I judge righteously. I am Lord of all by My Father's command.

This will not be stopped, no more time is granted. Fall on your knees and repent before your holy God because My sword strikes now. It will not be resheathed daughter. It will not be put back into place, in the scabbard until I am done. I came to set things right. I came to oppose the Pharisees and Sadducees of this world, the fallen angels, and the demons to set the people free. To set them free daughter, to set them free but they have to choose to be free. They have to choose to accept Me, Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha' Mashiach into their hearts as Lord and Savior and not be ashamed to confess it. Unto the mouth confession is made daughter.

Daughter I am the Living Word.

I am My Father's Son.

And I am the Righteous Judge.

"Jesus Christ I keep seeing a vision of Your hand but Your hand changes. From the wrist down it kind of fades into this magnificent sword." "Because I am the Sword, the Living Word. I am the Living Word." "Is that so I can understand it?" "Yes daughter it is." "Your will be done, Lord. In the Name of Jesus Christ your will be done, Lord."
